

The Center for the Advancement of Scholarship, Teaching, and Learning (CASTL) welcomes you to join Dr. Robert M. Smith for a discussion on University Leadership

Join the Discussion April 10, 2014

Leadership at a University

Who should attend?

Associate Deans, Chairs, Program
Directors

2:30pm – 4:00pm

Being an Institutional Change Agent

Who should attend?

Everyone

4:30pm – 5:30pm

Location: Bisgrove Hall; Room 250

Light refreshments will be served.

Please direct RSVP's and questions to
is@niagara.edu.

Dr. Robert M. Smith.

Robert M. Smith is President Emeritus of Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania following nine years as president and three years as provost. His prior appointments included Dean, College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Tennessee at Martin; Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Continuing Education and chair of the Department of Communication at Wichita State University; and debate coach at Princeton University.

Dr. Smith is a nationally recognized specialist in executive leadership development, institutional performance funding, and enrollment management. He has been the senior faculty member in four university-based executive development programs including nine years at the National Association of College and University Business Officers' (NACUBO) "Collegiate Management Business Institute."

To view Dr. Smith's full biography please see the Instructional Support events page.