

Dr. Derek Greenfield: Diversity Consultant

Award Winning visionary speaker, consultant, and thought leader

Come, Learn, and Enjoy!

Thursday, October 2nd

Schedule of Workshops

12:45-2:00 p.m. (Gallagher Center MPR) – Student Leader Session (Community Advisors, NUB Peer Mentors, NUSGA leadership)

lunch will be provided – RSVP required*

“Train the trainer” workshop on how to facilitate diversity exercises amongst students. This workshop will also help students understand their own identities and how they shape/impact their interactions with others in and outside of their leadership roles.

3:30-5:00 p.m. (Gallagher Center MPR) – Faculty/Staff Workshop

light refreshments will be provided – RSVP required*

Designed to provide faculty and staff to speak openly about their personal and professional experiences with diversity in terms of classroom and campus dynamics, conflict resolution, and interpersonal relations.

7:00-8:30 p.m. (Kiernan Center Scaffiddi Gym) – Keynote Lecture for Students (open to all students, NUB classes specifically)

Interactive presentation designed to enhance students’ understanding of their own biases, identities and assumptions. This workshop will also provides students with a “common ground” training that lays the foundation for future programs and classroom experiences regarding diversity and social justice issues.

Phone: 716-286-8510
Fax: 716-286-8316
Email: deb@niagara.edu

Office of Multicultural Affairs

Spreading cultural awareness and making difficult conversations possible.