Metz Culinary Management is pleased to announce promotions within our dining team at Niagara University. As we continue to enhance our dining program for students and guests, we are committed to providing the highest level of on-site leadership and hospitality.

Andrew Shaner has been promoted to general manager of the dining program at Niagara University. Prior to his promotion, Andrew served as operations manager of the program. He brings with him to this position of wealth of knowledge, passion, experience, creativity, and a love of food. We look forward to the growth and enhancements to dining services that Andrew will create.

Nicole Slipko has been promoted to catering manager. As catering manager, Nicole will be responsible for the continued improvement and development of our catering program. She will work with her catering team to provide outstanding catering options and hospitality to our guests. Nicole previously served as marketing manager for the dining program at Niagara University.

In addition, Joe Evans has been promoted to retail manager of the dining program. Joe has been working with our team at Niagara University for the past 8 months. Past positions include Director of Retail Operations at both Allegheny College and Duquesne University. In this position, he will be responsible for the overall management of the retail dining locations on campus and will report to Andrew Shaner.

Our dining team at Niagara University looks forward to continuing to provide the highest level of service and hospitality to our guests. Please feel free to contact any members of our team with questions or concerns. They can be reached at:
