

ACCOUNTING SHORT FILM COMPETITION

November 2017

Students, you're invited to explore non-traditional ways of teaching a concept/topic in accounting, to share your product in a short film, and even better, to win a prize and receive recognition by the entire community. We know you can do a great job. Learning accounting can be fun!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

Make a video clip of up to three minutes long to explain an accounting concept/topic in an innovative and interesting manner. The winner will be selected based on votes by the NU community.

$500 in PRIZES

($400 for the winning team and $25 for four voters randomly drawn)

Videos must be submitted to Dr. Lei Han in Bisgrove Hall, Room 251A by Nov. 1, 2017.

Sponsored by the Accounting Society, the Department of Accounting and the College of Business Administration
