Navigating Racial Conflict During Uncertain Times

Thursday Feb. 15th — Gallagher Center MPR

2:10-3:10pm — Navigating Racial Conflict

3:30-4:30pm — Open Discussion with Dr. Blanca Vega

College campuses seek to create inclusive living and learning communities, yet increased levels of racial conflict continue among students. To this end, students, faculty, staff, and community members must be aware of how conflicts can begin, in order to build and maintain a campus community that supports all. By the end of this talk, participants should be able to:

1. Rethink and flesh out assumptions about racial incidents in a safe and supportive space
2. Have a tool to better understand how racial incidents manifest in their institutions or organizations
3. Brainstorm with stakeholders who seek to understand and recognize racial incidents on their campuses on next steps.
